Signs of Alcohol Poisoning

- Passed out and can’t be woken up (COMA)
- Shallow or irregular breathing (8 breaths or less a minute)
- Pale or bluish skin that can feel cold or clammy
- Discover any one of these symptoms call 9-911 from campus phones or 911 from local phones immediately—Stay with your friend until help arrives—Turn person on his or her side to prevent choking

Source: National Institute for Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse (NIAAA)

A Safety Message from WVUPD

304-293-COPS (2677)